Acknowledgements

Special thanks to the Law Foundation for providing all of the financial support for this project, covering the costs of research, writing, translation and publication. Thanks to Murray Mollard, Lindsay Lyster, Lil Woywitka, Jim Braunagel, Christine Gibert, Vince Gogolek and Larry Cohen of the BCCLA, and all of the board members and executive for assistance in proofreading and providing moral support.

The material in this book is the product of extensive consultation with many community groups in and around Vancouver. The basic structure and some key ideas come from The Arrest Handbook, 1988 Edition, published by the B.C. Civil Liberties Association.

Thanks to Pivot Legal Society for sharing drug user and sex trade worker rights research they have compiled (www.pivotlegal.org). Thanks also to Perry Bulwer of the Pivot Legal Committee and Naomi Grattan for proof-reading.

I'd like to express my appreciation for the efforts of subject matter experts, including Greg DelBigio (Westlake & DelBigio), Nikos Harris (Peck & Co.), John Richardson (Pivot Legal Society) and Russell MacKay (Vertlieb Anderson MacKay), for their review of early drafts. Special thanks to Mr. Justice James Williams for his review of the legal accuracy of the text while he was still in private practice with Smart & Williams.

Other groups and individuals consulted who were helpful in sharing ideas and direction for this book included:

B.C. Mental Health Law Program

Covenant House B.C.

Downtown Eastside Youth Activities Society

Muslim Canadian Foundation

Social Activist Law Student Association (SALSA)

Vancouver Area Network of Drug Users

Vancouver Police Department

YWCA Street Kids Drop-In Centre Victoria

Olivia Lambert

John Turvey

Aziz Khaki

Mark Freeman

George Messinger

Insp. Doug Lepard

Captain Snowdon

Thanks to everyone who made this book possible.

About the BCCLA

The B.C. Civil Liberties Association (BCCLA) is a registered charity, located in Vancouver, British Columbia. Since 1962 the BCCLA has worked to protect and promote civil liberties in British Columbia and Canada. Our programs include education, complaint assistance, legal reform and occasional litigation. The majority of our funding comes from private grants and donations. Contact us to make a donation. The BCCLA does not provide legal advice and is not a legal referral service.
