

NEWS RELEASE

British Columbia Civil Liberties Association
March 23, 2009

For immediate release

Smolcic to give videophone to data recovery specialists

Vancouver, B.C. – Adam Smolcic, the man who allegedly videotaped a police-involved shooting on Friday with his cellphone is turning the phone over to data recovery specialists this morning at 11:30 a.m. He will be accompanied by lawyer and Executive Director of the B.C. Civil Liberties Association, David Eby

What: Handing over of video phone to data recovery specialists by police shooting witness

Where: 9912 Lougheed Highway, Sherlock Forensics

When: Today (Monday) at 11:30 a.m.

Who: Witness Adam Smolcic, Data recovery expert John Anderson and BCCLA Director David Eby

As Mr. Smolcic will be handing over his phone to the data recovery specialists, his new number can be obtained by calling David Eby at the phone number below.

MEDIA CONTACT:

David Eby, Acting Executive Director, (778) 865-7997